Per Pramod Kumar, AM:

1. By way of this appeal, the assessee-appellant has challenged correctness of the order dated 1st December, 2017 passed by the by the CIT(A), Ahmedabad-5 in the matter of penalty under Section 271(1)(c) of the Act for the Assessment Year 2009-10.

2. This appeal is time barred by 21 days but the assessee has moved a condonation petition seeking condonation of delay. Having perused the material and having heard the learned Departmental Representative on the same, we are inclined to condone the delay and take up the matter on merits.

3. When this appeal was taken up for hearing, it was noticed that the impugned order dated 01.12.2017 passed by the learned CIT(A) is an ex-parte order and that the appellant could not attend the proceedings before the CIT(A). The impugned order is thus passed without the benefit of assistance by the assessee appellant and the assessee appellant is now in appeal before us.

4. In response to a question from the Bench, learned Departmental Representative fairly agreed that he has no objection to the matter being remitted to the file of learned CIT(A) for adjudication de novo, after giving yet another reasonable opportunity of hearing to the assessee. We think this is a fair approach and since the learned CIT(A) did not have the benefit of assistance from the assessee appellant, the matter should be remitted to the file of learned CIT(A) for adjudication de novo, after giving yet another opportunity of hearing. In any case, there is no reason for an Appellate Forum being bypassed and the matter being taken up directly before us for adjudication on merits.

5. In view of this discussion and bearing in mind entirety of the case, we deem it fit and proper to remit the matter to the file of learned CIT(A) for fresh adjudication and the assessee appellant be given a reasonable opportunity of hearing. We order so.

6. In the result, appeal is allowed for statistical purposes in the terms indicated above. Pronounced in the open court today on the 26th June, 2018
