आदेश /ORDER

PERC.M.GARG, JUDICIAL MEMBER:

This appeal has been filed by the Revenue and the Cross Objection (CO) filed by the Assessee against the order of Commissioner of Income Tax (Appeals)-II, Surat ('CIT(A)' for short) dated 30.01.2013 for the Assessment Year (A.Y) 2009-10.

2. We have heard the Id. Departmental Representative (DR) and perused the material available on record and find that tax effect involved in this appeal is below Rs. 20 Lakhs. The Id. DR also did not dispute this fact. We find that the CBDT vide Circular No.3/2018 Dated 11.07.2018 [F.No.279/Misc.142/2007-ITJ (Pt)] has revised the monetary limit for filing of appeal before Tribunal fixing the tax effect limit at Rs.20 lacs. The said Circular supersedes the earlier Circular(s) issued on the subject of tax effect and applies to all pending appeal retrospectively. The Board has provided exceptions provided under para 10 of the Circular wherein it has been provided that the issues related is to be contested (a) where the Constitution validity of the provision of the Act or (b) Rule is under challenge or (c) where Board`s order, Notification, Instruction or Circular has been held to be illegal or ultra vires, or where Revenue Audit objections has been accepted by the Department or (d) where the addition relates to undisclosed foreign assets/bank accounts, etc.

3. We find that the present case does not fall within the exceptions clause and the tax demand is less than Rs.20 lacs. Therefore, the present appeal is not maintainable as per recent Circular (supra) and hence the same is dismissed. However, we may make it clear that the Revenue is at liberty to approach the Tribunal for recalling this order, if it comes to the notice of the Assessing Officer that the tax effect is more than the monetary limit prescribed under Circular or Revenue's case falls within the ambit of the exceptions provided in the Circular.

Assessee's Cross Objection in C.O No.141/Ahd/2013/SRT:

3. The Id. counsel for the assessee submitted that the assessee does not want to press the cross objection, therefore, the same is dismissed as not pressed.

4. In the result, the appeal of the Revenue and Cross Objection of the assessee are dismissed.

Order pronounced in the open court on this day of 23rd August, 2018.
